A grade of an A or B is required to obtain JHU transferable credits. Those students passing the class with a grade lower than B will be issued a Certificate of Completion. In some regions, this certificate can be applied as high school credit. Daily attendance is required to receive an A or B. Because this is course-intensive, all absences must be instructor approved. Medical absences will be given special consideration.

The Johns Hopkins University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, religion, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, marital status, or veteran status in any student program or activity administered by the University or with regard to admission or employment.

If you are an individual with a disability who is in need of accommodations, it will be necessary to provide appropriate documentation to the university for review. For documentation guidelines please see our website at www.jhu.edu/disabilityservices. All documentation and requests for accommodations should be submitted to the Engineering Innovation Office at least two weeks prior to the start of the class so that arrangements can be made.
